

Mineral Study

What is the name of your mineral?

Are there any other common names this mineral is known by?

What element(s) is this mineral composed of?

Describe the physical properties of your mineral. (Hint: Look for information about the color, shape, hardness, luster, or other details about how it looks.)

Describe the geological properties of your mineral. (Hint: Where is it found? How was it formed? Are there any special or dangerous things involved with extracting this mineral?)

Describe how this mineral impacts human society (Hint: Try to answer these questions--Why do we need it? What do we do with it? Why do we care about it?)

Any other interesting facts or details about your mineral: